PORN FEMINISTS LIKE TO WATCH
The Feminist Porn Awards Celebrate 10 Sexy Years!

Toronto: Feminist porn challenges the stereotypes not only of mainstream productions but also breaks down stereotypes of what kinds of sex feminists like to watch. From mild to wild, straight, queer and/or trans, feminist porn is will be celebrating its tenth anniversary in Toronto April 15-17.

This internationally renowned awards event attracts leading directors, stars and fans from all across the globe. "Feminism is mainstream! From Beyoncé to Emma Watson to Joseph Gordon Levitt, feminism is no longer a fringe, man hating, uniform movement. Feminist pornographers are creating ethically-made, hot and diverse films." says Carlyle Jansen, owner of Good For Her and founder of the Feminist Porn Awards.

For the last nine years, this festival has showcased alternative portrayals of eroticism and sensuality that will shatter assumptions about the porn aesthetic. Feminist porn is empowering women and men with a new level of sophistication and cinematography that is appealing to a more traditional porn audience.

Highlights of this year's event include:

April 15: Erika Lust and XConfessions a Night of Indie Erotica at the Royal Cinema 608 College St.
Erika Lust shows off her hottest films and answers your questions about being a pornographer.

April 16: Public.Provocative.Porn. at the Bloor Cinema 506 Bloor St. W.
A carefully curated selection of short clips of this year's finest feminist porn, with Q & A with directors in attendance.

April 17: Good For Her Feminist Porn Awards Gala at the Capitol Event Theatre Theatre 2492 Yonge St.

An awards show like no other: sexy performances, hot clips of winning films and schmoozing with the stars, including Ovidie, Jiz Lee, Shine Louise Houston and Kelly Shibari.
